Community Services Fund of Nebraska Grows to 58 Agencies

Lincoln, NE – April 15, 2014 - Community Services Fund of Nebraska is pleased to announce ten new agencies are joining the workplace giving federation this year.

"The thousands of Nebraskans who give through Community Services Fund's workplace giving campaigns want to give to organizations that are as unique and varied as they are," said Kiersten Hill, Executive Director of Community Services Fund of Nebraska. "We've broken our fundraising records two years in a row, but we're continuing to evolve. Choosing a charity to support can be like sitting down in a restaurant; we are excited to add new items to the menu for our donors."

New agencies include:

- Center for Rural Affairs
- Film Streams at the Ruth Sokolof Theater
- Hear Nebraska
- Hearts United for Animals
- Junior League of Lincoln
- Justice For Our Neighbors – Nebraska (JFON)

- ServeNebraska, an Affiliate Fund of the Nebraska Community Foundation

Community Services Fund of Nebraska is a coalition of 58 diverse non-profit organizations that provide services ranging from education and advocacy to offering direct services that enhance the quality of life in the state. By conducting campaigns in workplaces, mostly through payroll deduction, Community Services Fund gives employees the opportunity to designate their donation to make a difference in the agencies that matter most to them.

Nearly 100 businesses throughout Nebraska offer Community Services Fund as part of their workplace giving campaign. Community Services Fund is always looking to partner with new workplaces across Nebraska to offer its member agencies as a payroll giving option.
